1. After the arrival of about 650 recruits in October 1950, the bulk of Inf Unit [] was transferred from As (M 51/P 18) to other locations. Some personnel of the unit were reassigned to an SMB border guard unit. [] believed that the infantry companies were transferred to Cheb (N 51/P 37), the submachine gun company and the units equipped with heavy weapons to Dvory near Karlovy Vary (N 51/P 37). (1) 25X1
2. The elements of Unit [] which had remained in As, were organized into an A Company. A short time later the soldiers were told that Unit [] had been deactivated and that a unit [] had been organized from it. The headquarters of this unit, which was called a border guard unit, was located in As or Cheb. (2) 25X1
3. In late December 1950, all EM of A Company were politically screened.
4. After 15 November 1950, A Company in As was employed for the erection of pre-fabricated huts along the border. The temporary buildings, which were composed of two units, were concealed in the woods, 2 km apart. (3)
5. At the time Unit [] was transferred, a high-ranking Soviet officer inspected the quarters in As. 25X1
6. About early December 1950, units from Slovakia were transferred to As. (4)

Comments.

- (1) The transfer of the 46th Inf Bn, [] from As to other posts in the area of the 13th Inf Brig. or possibly 13th Inf Div, was reported previously. 25X1
- (2) The reported deactivation of the 46th Inf Bn requires confirmation. There is a possibility that the battalion was withdrawn from the border area, leaving A Company behind at As for the construction of temporary buildings. This company was then assigned to a border guard unit.
- (3) [] 25X1
- (4) These units were employed for the setting up of prefabricated huts.
